

RISK MANAGEMENT TRAINING ON EHS

DURATION

TRAINING OBJECTIVES

To equip participants with the knowledge and practical skills to identify, assess, and control Environmental, Health, and Safety (EHS) risks in the workplace. This training aims to enhance awareness of hazard identification techniques, risk evaluation using HIRA, application of the hierarchy of controls, and implementation of effective emergency response plans—ultimately fostering a proactive safety culture and compliance with relevant legal and ISO standards.

COURSE CONTENT

- Introduction to EHS & EHS Risk
- Basics of HIRA Methodology
- Hierarchy of Controls
- Emergency Preparedness
- Risk Management Integration
- Route to certification
- Business benefits of implementing EHS.

LEARNING OUTCOME

Listed below are some of the benefits of attaining Risk Management Training on EHS

- Understand the basic of EHS (environment health and safety management system)
- Identify various types of workplace hazards and assess associated risks.
- Apply the HIRA methodology to evaluate and prioritize risks.
- Implement appropriate risk control measures using the hierarchy of controls.
- Understand and respond effectively to EHS incidents and emergencies.
- Integrate EHS risk management practices into routine operations and drive continual improvement.

CERTIFICATE

"Certificate of Attendance" will be provided by 4C Consulting Private Limited